

CHNA Minutes from Thursday, October 5th meeting at the Hearst Center

Treasurer's Report-Jana

Ck $603.99 Sav. $5,498.53 Tour of Homes Acct. $2,033.73

Old Business

- Tour of Homes- a great success; estimated 250-300 people went through the homes. Mary will give 1/3 of the proceeds to the Historical Society
- Official Elections - Officers
 - Jill Lankford - President, Jana Nelson - Treasurer, Sally Dietz - Secretary, Jean Simmet - Director, Karyn Leonard - Director, Terri Helinski - Director, Rob Stanley - Director
- Events
 - Christmas Tree Lighting - Monday, December 4th?
 - Karyn and Sally will organize refreshments - cookies, cider and cocoa for the event. Jill will organize putting up light
 - Jean will speak with youth needing service hours to come help put up the lights.
 - Sally will contact PLS about the Chorus coming to sing Christmas carols and also speak to Lampost Theater being a back up for refreshments if the weather is bad.
- Communications
 - Newsletter Jean is going to try to get articles written by some of the merchants in the Merchants Association to begin to build bridges with our organizations.
 - Rob will also try to work on communication between the two groups.
 - Need strategy to work more cooperatively with the Landlord Association. We will try to make sure that the Landlord Association gets a copy of the CHNA Newsletter as well. It will be in everyone's best interest to work together.
- Planning/Neighborhood Projects
 - Creek Clean Up schedule for Spring
 - Letter to City Council regarding issues facing the neighborhood and ways to improve current conditions, including; looking into a minimum maintenance code, tax incentives for renovations, city appointing a resource person as a neighborhood facilitator, motel/hotel tax use provision for helping neighborhood.